Shelley Appoints Fred Hamdun as Deputy Secretary of State

SAN FRANCISCO --- Secretary of State Kevin Shelley today announced the appointment of former Executive Director of the San Francisco Department of Parking and Traffic Fred Hamdun to serve as Deputy Secretary of State.

"I'm pleased Fred has agreed to join my Administration. As the Executive Director for San Francisco's Department of Parking and Traffic, Fred has vast experience managing the day-to-day operation of a large public agency – his expertise will be an asset to the Secretary of State's office," said Secretary Shelley.

Fred Hamdun served as Deputy Director of the San Francisco Department of Parking and Traffic from 1998 to 2000 when Mayor Willie L. Brown, Jr. named him Executive Director in June of 2000. Prior to his employment at the Department of Parking of Traffic, Fred was with the San Francisco Airport Commission, serving as Director of the Ground Transportation Unit, where he played a key role in updating technology to allow for modernized billing of ground transportation operators. In addition, Fred was part of the Business Development and Management Group where he assisted in the management of airport property and concession development.

In his new capacity with the Secretary of State's office, Fred will help oversee the day-to-day administrative functions of the Agency and serve as a senior advisor to Secretary Shelley.
